A sailing ship was born, Bluenose was her name
 C D em
Will we ever see the lights of her again ?

Ref: C D G em
Bluenose the ocean knows her name
 C D G
Sailors knew how proud a ship was she
 C D G em
Bluenose leaning in the wind
 C D em
Racing every day above the sea

2. Her sails were snowy white, they strained against the mast
The spray blew high as she was sailing past
And from the very first Bluenose liked to run
She liked the smell of sea and of sun

Ref.

3. For 25 long years she ruled the northern sea
Racing like a Queen on the tide
Then on a Caribbean dark and stormy night
She ran into a reef and died

Ref

4. Now just the other day down Nova Scotia way
In Lunembourg the christened a ship
Just like the old Bluenose to the very name
The Bluenose lives and sails again
